Unlawful Bail in the Police Court. We have called attention to the fact that Judge Johnston sometimes admitted parties, charged with felony, to bail, to appear at a future day, on the examining trial. We say sometimes, for the prac tice of the court is not uniform in this regard .-Let the cause be what it may, the practice, we repeat, is not uniform. The last case of the kind. the conduct of Judge Johnston, by urging that Holmes was really justifiable, and his case, in its worst aspect, was only manslaughter. If Holmes was justifiable, why exact bail at all? There are still some men acting with the Know Nothing party to whom appeal may not be in are spurned and trampled. We do not say you can do as we advise without danger. Whoever dares to speak, write, or act in opposition to the rule of the powers that be in the dominant party, does so at the peril of life and property. His own arm is his only safeguard-at least, the law affords none. But still, in the name of God and of onutry, of humanity and of right, we call upon you to do the duty you owe to all.

We would not do the Judge injustice. There are oc casions when his indicial bearing was deserving of the highest praise. We may particularly instance the trial of Col. On that occasion Judge Johnston sternly ruled the law as it was, though his party cursed and denounced him then, and thereafter and sonolit to dictate a course of injustice, to which he naid uo heed. At this ratio, the general decrease in the value of Foreign Goods brought into the United States for the year, would be about to the United States for the year, would be about NIMETT-THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS—reducing the total list, exclusive of Foreign Specie, from $248,-428,000 in 1857, to $255,554,000 in 1858. The Export List, at New York, also shows a falling off, to the extent of $26,840,000 of which $10,228,000 is in Specie. The falling off in articles of Domestic Produce, is within a few thousand dollars of twenty-millions, at New York, where, last year, the proportion of clearances of Domestic Produce was 87 per cent. of the grand total of the country. THE LEXINGTON AFFAIR. THE MURDER OF MARSHAL BEARD

THE MURDERER HUNG! On Saturday our extra exclusively furnished our citizens with intelligence of the murder of Jos. Beard, Marshal of the city of Lexington, and the subsequent execution of the murderer by the ndignant populace. Our atthentive correspondent gives the following particulars: LEXINGTON, July 10, 1558.

Editors Louisville Courier: I telegraphed you this morning a brief account of the morder of our City Marshal, Jos. Beard. He was murdered about 4 o'clock this (Saturday) morning, on Water street, while in the discharge of his official duties. The murderer, William Barker, had a knife drawn, and was attempting to stab another man named John McChesney, with whom he was disputing. Beard stepped up to arrest Barker, and in a moment was stabled to the heart by Barker. The knife was a very large bowie, and made a wound four inches in width. Beard was stabled in the right side, the knife cutting in twain one rib, severing the lnngs and cutting in two the right ventricle of the heart. Beard made two gasps and was a corpse.

Barker was immediately arrested and lodged in jail. The excitement, as the murder was circulated, became intense. Large crowds gathered around the jail; the Court House bell was rung; the fire bells immediately chimed in, and the cry went np, "Hang him! hang him!" A move was made to the Court House, and soon the yard and house was a perfect jan. Some person put the motion, that "all who were in favor of hanging Barker would say aye." A yell resounded throughout the multitude to "Hang him!" A rush was made to the jail, where an entrance was effected by demanding the jailor to give up the key or to y demanding the jailor to give up the key, or to uhmit to having it taken from him.

Barker was taken out and marched to the Court louse, where one of the uprights, belonging to the "county gallows," was run out one of the windows, the rope put around Barker's neck, his hands tied behind him, he slided from the window, having a two foot fall, which snapped the rope asunder. Another rope was obtained, adjusted about his neck, when he was drawn up and left panging one hour and a half.

Barker was told to pray—he said "he had nothing to pray for," and remarked that they could hang him," and he G—d d—d. Mr. Joseph Beard was the Marshal of the cit of Lexington, elected last August; he was a faithful ollicer, a kind man, and universally esteemed by all parties. He was a candidate for re-elecand would have, beyond a doubt, been re for another term.

Mr. Beard leaves a wife and four children, who have the heartfelt sympathy of this community They are left in indigent circumstances. I would here remark that Mr. Beard has two rothers living in this city-0. P. Beard and L. Beard-neither one of them took the least part in the mob. I noticed them at their place ousiness, crying like children. They have the sympathy of every one.

LITTLE ROCK, June 28, 1858. Editors Louisville Courier: Gentlemen-Since wrote to you from Kentucky City, I have had occasion to travel through portions of several southern States, and noted particularly the condition of the country along the Mississippi and Arkansas rivers, and the prospects of the planters in the country above the overflow. I have, at different times and under different circum stances, beheld suffering humanity subjected to all the perils and evils that flesh is heir to, yet I have never before witnessed such general priva tion and destruction of property as now prevails all along the Mississippi, and as far up the Arkan-sus river as the back-water from the Mississippi extends. Everything is destroyed, and the people in many places are hurrying away from their plantations, with their families and the negroes, to keep them from perishing amid the common rnin. From a point, say forty-live miles above the Arkansas river, the planters have a very line stand of cotton and the finest corn I ever saw; the wheat crop was a partial, and the oat crop a total failure throughout the State—the latter eaten It is suggested by some that the out by the root. number of victims to rheumatism, and hence the great rush to the Hot Springs. Yesterday our reporter visited Capt. Henri de Riviere, at the Napoleon Ilotel, Hoboken, where he is at present remaining in the custody of offi-cer McDonough, awaiting turther action of his connsel, Gen. Wright, 11 regard to the charge against him by Col. Blount.

The Captain has rented comfortable quarters, occupying rooms Nos. 11 and 13 of the hotel, both which are furnished with all the comforts that ould be desired. Around the room hung his mil-ary clothing and sword, which he said he used n the Crimean war. Quite a large number of ctters lay upon the table, and among them a locket book, containing some half a dozen letters, hrough each of which was a bullet hole, a ball naving passed entirely through and struck a case n his pocket, which saved his life while in a

It is certain that she is not at the Hotel Napoleon with her mother, and it is equally certain that those who know her place of concealment, including de Riviere—who judging from the free use he makes of her letters, is leaky enough—are determined to keep the matter secretfor the present.

The only new feature that presented itself yesterday with reference to the legal aspect of the case was the issuing of two writs of habeus corpus hy Judge Ogden, one directed to the proprietor of the Hotel Napoleon, and the other to Capt. de Riviera.

A special term of the Scott Circuit Court, (Judge Moore, of the 9th district, presiding,) for the trial of Richard Thomasson for the morder of his brother several years ago, commenced on Tnesday last, and was closed on Wednesday. The Thesday last, and was closed on Wednesday. The question of the constitutionality of the act of the last Legislature, authorizing the Governor, when the regular Judge cannot serve, to appoint some other Circuit Judge to try the case, was argued by Messrs. James F. Rohinson, J. C. Breckinridge, Jas. B. Beck, and R. W. Woolley, counsel for the defendants, against the constitutionality; and by Maj. W. S. Ilowney, Commonwealth's Attor-ney, in favor of it. The Judge decided in favor The Judge decided in favor of the consti tutionality of the law. A motion was then made for a continuance, on the ground that important witnesses were absent. This motion was overruled. Subsequently a motion was made for a change of venue, which was granted, and the case will be tried in Owen .- Lex. Obv ed one of the sly gentry called watch-stuffers, and lodged him in the watch-house. He claims to he an honest merchant, following his vocation of huying and selling, like any other tradesman, though the game these chaps play s anything but honest. The plan generally adopted is to fall in with a green one, and under oretense of being "strapped" or "broke," endeavor to pawn or sell a galvanized watch for just money enough to take him home to see a dying wife, mother, or some other dear relative. The stranger takes the watch which looks like gold, and, if his sympathies are well worked upon loans the stuffer $20 or $30, keeping the watch as security, with very particular directions and instructions from the other in regard to his place of residence, and where he will redeem the watch. That's about the last ever seen of him, while the watch, when examined, is ascertained to have a brass case, with works which will not go only when carried, the making up of the whole thing costing about one dollar and a quarter, as it is all bogus hut the brass, made to sell, hut not to go.

LABOR-SAVING MACHINE, -The most important to the public generally is a Washing Machine, manufactured by B. D. Porter & Co., of this city. These machines have been tried by a large number of our best citizens, and have given satisfac tion to every one who has used them. The ma to get out of order. A child of ten years can un destand and work one of them. It is a great sav-ing of time and labor; it does not rub off the but-tons, or injure the finest fabric in washing; it will wash anything from a pocket handkerchief to the largest size quilt, and do the work quick, and do it well. In proof of the above, we can refer to a large number of highly respectable persons who now have the machine in use, and, in addition to this, give any one the privilege of trying the machine before purchasing.

GREAT CURE AFTER THE PHYSICIANS HAD FAILED RUSSELLVILDE, OHIO, Jan. 10, 1855.—Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: "We would inform you that we are out of Hoofland's German Bitters, which are very ready sale. One of our neighbor's has been doctoring for some time, (we think about two years, with all the doctors in the country,) but all of to avail. He looked as much like a dead man going about as anything we can compare him to.— His disease appeared to be an overflowing of the With hard persuasion we prevailed on him to try your Bitters, with the promise to him, if it did no good, we would charge him nothing for it, provided he took six bottles according to the direct ons, which he has done, and is now entirely ired, and has become a well man. This cur-

IMPROVED WATSON'S FAMILY SEWING MACHINE

Till is invention is the only one having for its object the reduction of price and the real utility necessary to place it in every family in the Union. There is no doubt that this is one of the most useful and valuable inventions ever brought before the public. It is an accompanion to the work-basket. Instead of, as heretofore, with other machines, a companion to the workshop.

The Watson Machine uses the thread from one ordinary spool without the trouble of rewinding, and is adapted to the sewing of Muslin, Linen, Silk or Woolen Goods. They are strong, durable, and not hable to get cutof order; and will do the work of a week in a single day.

Price of the hand Machine, $15; for Machine with Table and Treadle, $25 and $30. For sale at my5 d3m

Reception of Douglas.

CHICAGO, June 9, 11 P. M.
Senator Douglas was received this morning with great display. At one o'clock a committee of 400 from Chicago and the adjoining counties proceeded from Chicago to Michigan City, where they met Judge Douglas and escorted him to the city. The arrival of the train was greeted by the firing of cannon and cheers of the people. The procession was formed and conducted him to the Tremont House. Here he was welcomed with a brief speech on behalf of the citizens, by Chas. Walker, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Douglas, after returning thanks for the magnifi-cent reception, reviewed the action of the last Congress on the Kansas bill. He extolled Critendeu's bill as honest, and the very best propo sition for practical illustration of popular sover-eignty. He claimed that the struggle with Le-comptonism was for integrity of principle; that struggle was triumphant. Lecomptonism is vir ually abandoned by its friends, and been defeated orever. He had opposed the English bill, although it practically sent back the constitution to be accepted or rejected by the people of Kansas, because the manner as well as the form of that ubmission was at variance with every just principle of popular government. It was a submis-sion of the constitution to the people with the threat if they did not accept the slave constitution with 35,000 inhabitants, they should not come in as a free State until they had 93,000. He could never countenance such discrimination between a free and a siave State.

Lincoln indorsed not only this doctrine, but proclaimed a line of policy which is incompatible with the existence of the Union. He declared that the Union divided with an equal number of free and slave States cannot endure. Mr. Douglas showed the dangerous tendency of the doctrine—that it invited and proclaimed a war of extermination of one section against the other. He regarded it subversive to the fundamental principle upon which our complex system of gov-principle upon which our complex system of gov-ation of the gov-principle upon which our complex system of gov-ation of gov-principle upon which our complex system of gov-served and gov-graph of gov-graph our complex system our complex system of gov-graph our complex system of gov-graph our complex system our complex system of gov-graph our complex system our local policy on the domestic institutions of the different States is either desirable or possible. On the contrary, our political system rested upon the theory and practice of dissimilarity of local policy of the don nestic institutions of the differ THE undersigned gives notice that the books and notes belonging to the late firm of Weil & Gideon are in the hands of KAHN & WOLFE for settlement, to close the partnership business. S. WEIL.

and supreme in her own limit. ent States. Our forefathers clearly perceived that domestic institutions which suit New and supreme in her own limit.

The best energies of his mind have been several years devoted to the great principle of the right of the people of the territories to frame their own fundamental laws, and he intended to devote all the future of his life to the same doc-innati platform, and reaffirmed in Pres dent Buchanan's inaugural. He regretted to see, however, a powerful party in this country determined not to acquiesce in this line of policy. The Republican convention, recently assembled at Springfield, nominated Mr. Lincoln as his succesthe Senate. He (Mr. L.) repudiated the doctrine of popular sovereignty, and claimed that Congress, and not the people of the terri-tories, can establish the domestic institutions of the territories.

On the supposition that they would be as diversified as the States are numerous, it thus would seem that the diversity and dissimilarity of the domestic institutions of the sovereign States are the cardinal principles underlying the whole system of government. Its 'strength, harmony, and adaptation to the wants and interests of the people all depend on the right of each State to form and regulate its internal policy, without reference to their similarity to those of other States. He repeated that uniformity is neither desirable nor he territories. repeated that uniformity is neither desirable non possible. If possible, how can it be obtained?— There is but one process through which it can be accomplished—that would be to abolish State Leg islatures and convert the government into one consolidated empire, investing Congress with full power to adopt police regulations, regulate inter-nal policy, and adopt domestic institutions for all the States. Let this be done, and there would be uniformity. Then the States would be all free or slave; then negroes would vote everywhere or no-where; then our glorious confederation of thirty-two sovereign States would be merged into one consolidated empire; the uniformity of despotism would reign triumphant throughout the land.

Mr. Douglas noticed Mr. Lincoln's crusade against the Supreme Court on account of the Dred Scott decision. He could not sanction a crusade against the highest judicial tribunal in the land. and was prepared to yield obedience to the law as expounded by the court. He did not agree with Expounded by the court. He did not agree with Lincoln that it was a great wrong to deprive negroes of the rights of citizenship. He didn't believe that they were ever intended to be citizens. Our government is founded on a white basis, created by white men for the benefit of white men. True humanity required that negroes and other inferior races should be permitted to anoty such rights and privileges as they were an enjoy such rights and privileges as they were ca-pable of exercising consistent with the good of society. He adverted to the necessity of main. taining the organization of the Democratic party— While there might be differences of opinion in respect to the true construction of particular ar-ticles of the creed of the party telegrapes must cles of the creed of the party, tolerance must be indulged. Particulars of the Lexington Tragedy. Lexinoron, July 10.—Barker was engaged in a sight at the market house this morning. City Mar-Lexinorox, July 10.—Barker was engaged in a fight at the market house this morning. City Marshal Beard arrested and started with him to the watch house. After walking together 20 paces or more, Barker tripped Beard, and rumor says placed one knee on Beard's breast, then stabbed him, the knife entering the right side, cutting one rib, a lung, and penetrating the heart. Beard died instantly. Barker they ran about 50 yards, when he was arrested and placed in the state of yards, when he was arrested and placed in the watch house, and transferred to jail by the Sheriff. This was about 4 o'clock. Considerable excite-This was about 4 o'clock. Considerable excitement was noticeable, and quite a crowd collected near the jail. About 7 o'clock the fire bells and court house bell were rung; the crowd increased in numbers, and adjourned to the court-house, where they remained until 7% o'clock, then proceeded to the jail, secured the keys and entered Barker's cell, where he was found sleeping. He was taken from thence to the court house, where a scaffold was made with a beam projecting from the second atory window. A small rope was attached to the prisoner's neck and made fast to the beam, and the prisoner forced out. The rope broke and Barker fell to the ground. He was knocked senseless for a few moments. After recovering somewhat, another rope was placed round his neck, and he was drawu up and remained hanging until about 10%, when he was cut down and placed in a coffin and removed elsewhere for interment. The city is quiet now.

THE CASE OF CAPTAIN FULLER-THE POLICE COURT.—On the evening of the 4th of July, as our readers are aware, one Captain Fuller, a river man, well koown in this city, horse-whipped a female whom he met on the street, and who held in her arms at the time an infant child, which is charged was also the offspring of Fuller. He went into a livery stable, borrowed a whip, and most chivalrously struck the unfortunate creature and her little child several blows over the face and head. Complaint was made before the Police Court, and yesterday the case was disposed of by thr Judge, fining the gallant Captain the enormous sum of eight dollars and costs for the offense against manhood and decency as well as the public peace. The Police Judge seems to have considered the defense of the Captain that they are the seems to have considered the defense of the Captain, that the woman had been at his house and annoyed his family, a valid one, and he therefore imposed this merely nominal punishment.

We do not agree with the Judge, nor will the public assent to the justice of his decision.

The poor woman was entitled to Fuller's sympathy and commiseration rather than abuse, and he could easily have found other means to prevent annoyance to his family than by publicly horse-whipping her in the streets. We hold that any man who raises his arm against a woman, except in kindness or to ward off personal injury disgraces himself, and is unfit. a woman, except in kindness or to ward on personal injury, disgraces himself, and is unfit to be recognized as a man of proper cultivated feelings. The horse-whipping a woman and infant child was barbarous and cruel, and ought to have been expiated by stiff fine and confine in the dungeon. Such decisions as this are well calculated to make the Police Court a stench in the nostrils of every honorable man. Cincinnati Enquirer.

We are informed that an affair of honor came off near the fair grounds on Saturday. Two shots were exchanged and both parties run, frightened doubtless, at the explosion of the pisols .- Maysville Eagle.

A CARD. BURNET HOUSE.

THE subscribertakes this opportunity of greeting his old friends, patrons, and the public generally, and begs leave to state that the above magnificent establishment—architecturally and otherwise the lacet in America—will henceforth be conducted on a secondard to worthy finest in America—will henceforth be conducted on a scale of enlarged liberality and accommodation worthy its widely-extended reputation.

In sympathy with the spirit of refrenchment and cooney, rendered imperative by the stringency of the times, and pervading all classes, the price of daily board will from this date be reduced to Two Dollars.

The advantages of the Burnett House over all other hotels in Cincinnati are manifold; among which are more liberal and elegant architecture, numerous and easily accessible offices of public convenience, the finest Dining Rossus, and Ladder Drawing Room in America. The most liberal arrangement for taking measis, embracing nearly every bour in the twenty-four, great centralness of stination, and close proximity to all mysument laces

1. B. WALKER & CO. DOCTORS' BUGGIES.

THE RIVER is gradually falling at the head of the falls, with 31 or 32 inches water in the pass last evening, and 4 feet 8 inches in the canal by the mark. Boats drawing 5½ feet water could readily work through, as the mud is pretty well removed. The weather Saturday was very warm, but vesterday it was a few degrees cooler, with a good breeze and heavy clouds all day, bringing a ttle rain in the evening. The river at points above is falling, with but feet at Pittshurgh, and the mail-boats between this port and Cincinnati have some trouble in getting along, the Strader rubbing at Rising Sun on 6 fee

The arrivals from below give conflicting reports to the stage of water in the Lower Ohio, the McLellan giving but 5½ feet water at Flint Island, while the Metropolis reports fully 9 feet. The latter boat had a barge in tow, the Captain hearing reports of low water, but found no use for it, as there was plenty of water. There has been a small rise along the river, which, together with the natural washing of the sand, has deepened the channel. This is confirm-ed by the arrival of the E. H. Fairchild, from New Orleans, last evening, as we learn by her that there were fully 8 feet water on New Albany bar, which is the shoalest point just now below the STEAMER ANTELOPE ON FIRE-Probable Loss of the Boat — Cargo Partially Saved—Passengers Saved—Card.—We learn from the officers of the E. H. Fairchild, by letter from Mr. Sage, the clerk of the boat, that the Antelope, hence for New Orleans, caught fire in the hold Saturday morning, and great fears were entertained that she wonl be burnt up. The fire was discovered when the boat was in the vicinity of Cincinnati bar, a few miles above Caseyville. The boat was immediately headed for shore and landed, where every cossible effort was made to suppress the flames team and water were turned into the hold, an Steam and water were turned into the hold, and the hatches fastened down to smother the fire The letter from Mr. Sage, the clerk, states that the deck load was saved, and that the passengers, furniture, and upper works of the boat were all safe, with hopes of saving the boat. The Antelope left this port for New Orleans Wednesday evening, with a fair freight, including a lot of har, and 200 lehls. of whisky in the hold. This is very inflammable material for fire, and the officers of the Fairchild state that the blaze of the fire was seen issuing from the rudder post of the boat. Capt. Brown and his officers were using every effort to Brown and his officers were using every effort to save the boat, attending most manfully to their duties, having done all that was possible. The deck load and furniture were removed to the shore, and a barge in tow of the R. F. Sass had been secured, that boat having been hailed for the pur-

How the fire originated was difficult to deter mine, Captain Brown stating that about half an hour before it was discovered he had been in the hold, and was certain that everything was safe then. DOUBLE WALLED WATER PITCHERS We have this day received a splendid assortment of the above Pitchers, which are similar in appearance to, and equally convenient, as those in common use, but is so constructed that when the cover is down every part of its coutents is doubly encased from the atmosphere; the effect of which is, that he same quantity of ice used in these Pitchers will last six times as long as the same quantity used in any other vessel. Being composed of metal, and heavily plated with pure silver, they are not liable to break, which will render their first cost more economical in the end than any other Pitcher. SPEER'S WEATHER STRIP LOCK SPERIUS WEATHER STRIP LOCK.

This subscribers beg leave to inform builders and others, that they have purchased at a high price the right for Kentucky of "SPERR'S WEATHER STRIP LOCK," an article which has only to be seen to commend itself to architects and builders. It is very simple in its operation, cannot get out of order, is a perfect weather and dust guard, is seenre against the operations of hurgiars, prevents all noise by the wind and slamming, and is cheaper and better for French windows than any article yet invented.

We now offer the right for every county in Kentneky, except Jefferson, which we reserve for ourselves, for sale ou such liberal terms as must make it a profitable investment.

The "Elixir" is very gradual, but certain in its act The "Elixir" is very gradual, but certain in its action non the organs of digestion, the increased secretions of the liver, pancreas and mucous membrane of the stomach, and requires that only one dose be taken in twenty-four hone; for confirmed Dyspepsia can only be cured by gradually restoring the organs of digestion to a heaithy state. The great success met with in curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, accompanied sometimes with a high grade of hypoclirondriasis has established the most unbounded confidence in the euralive properties of this "Elixir" in corroboration of which dead the following testimonials:

ATTESTATION.—We, having used William's "Anti-yspeptic Elixir," with the most perfect satisfaction and uccess, take great pleasure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dyspepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing all palus and uneasiness, and imparting a healthy tone to the stomach:—

The Madame uses no Mineral Medicine. What is obe person's cure is another's poison, is an old and ture-saying. So nature provides a remedy for all persons and all diseases; but, to find them, nature herself must be searched and studied. Such has been the Madame's study and practice for years, successfully.

PRIVATE MEDICAL DISPENSARY.

D. R. GATES has the pleasure of announcing to the public that the has taken the office formerly occupied by Dr. KING, and permanently located in Loudiville, Ky., where he would call the attention of all those afflicted with diseases of a private or confidential nature, to the new method of treatment as practiced in the English and French hospitals. Having for several years made this class of them, warrants him in saying that there is no form of symptoms which they assume that is without a quick and permanent cure. Dr. 3.'s mode of treating these diseases is entirely new, having mover been adopted by any other Physician in this country.
